Track: Regional and Religious Studies

Introduction to the Track

This track invites both theoretical and applied research papers discussing topics relevant to the concepts related to Regional and Religious Studies. Its overall purpose is to provide a dedicated venue for such research to be shared and discussed, and thus to highlight the breadth and depth of efforts to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of this area of research. In honor of this year's conference theme, submissions which consider opportunities to improve decision making by and for a diverse set of stakeholders are particularly welcomed.
